FIMSSC NEWSLETTER

Hey FIMS community,

So, it's November—which means we're deep in that time when assignments, midterms, and projects are everywhere, and time seems to fly by even faster. I just wanted to take a second to remind you all to give yourselves credit for the hard work you're putting in. Balancing everything can feel overwhelming, but you're handling it with such strength, and that's something to be proud of.

Remember, it's okay to step back and take a breather when you need to. Whether it's grabbing coffee with friends, getting some fresh air, or just taking a few minutes to unwind, those little breaks can make all the difference. And if things get tough, know that the FIMS community has your back. We're all in this together, and you're never alone on this journey.

Keep pushing forward, stay focused, and remember—you're absolutely capable of handling everything this month brings. You've got this, FIMS!

Warmly,
The FIMS Student Council
